

Judith Rush has a solo ethics and professional liability advisory, appellate, and family law practice in St. Paul. Judie has been an adjunct professor at Hamline University School of Law since 1996 where she teaches Professional Responsibility and Legal Advocacy and taught Professional Responsibility as an Adjunct at William Mitchell College of Law in 2008 and 2009. She is a frequent presenter of CLE and other programs for lawyers and law students. Judie is the Chair of the Minnesota Board on Lawyers Professional Responsibility, previously served on the Minnesota Supreme Court Task Force on the Discipline System, and was a volunteer in the lawyer disciplinary system for 12 years, first with the Second DEC and then with the Minnesota Board of Lawyers Professional Responsibility, where she served as Vice-Chair. Judie also serves on the ABA Co-LAP Law Student Assistance Committees, is past chair of the MSBA Life & the Law Committee, and former chair of that Committee's Law Student and Benefit Bike Ride Committees. Judie has served on the RCBA Board, is a current co-chair of the Publications Committee and past chair of the Events Oversight and CLE Oversight Committees. She volunteers in the Ramsey County Volunteer Attorney Program and is a member and past chair of the Board of Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers. Judie earned her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude from Hamline University and her J.D. magna cum laude from William Mitchell College of Law.